

Young, talented and always keen to experiment, the eleven members of Salaputia Brass choose their exciting programmes very carefully. Lightning clean intonations, rhythmic perfection and a meticulously balanced sound are what one can expect to hear.

...played with stupendous virtuosity on a high technical level and also very expressively.

Pizzicato | CD Roots | Remy Franck | November 30, 2020

They handled their instruments brilliantly, are laid-back and spread their good mood. ...downright virtuoso and most precisely played.

Main-Post | Mozartfest Würzburg | Angelika Silberbach | June 17, 2019

With their thematically shaped programmes that regularly include commissioned works they succeed to bridge the gap between the highest musical expectations and an entertaining listening pleasure.

Concert invitations have led them amongst others to the Elbphilharmonie Hamburg, Mozartfest Würzburg, Bachfest Stuttgart, MDR Musiksommer as well as to Heidelberg and to the Philharmonie Essen.

After the CD recordings "Sounds of Evolution" and "Signals from Heaven" (with Jeroen Berwaerts - trumpet and jazz vocals) in 2020 Salaputia Brass released the CD "Roots" with works by English composers from Holborne to John Lennon as well as a James Bond medley.
