

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SEASON

Lebensmuth | Courage to live

Joseph Haydn (1732-1809)	String Quartet in C major Op. 20 No. 2 Hob.III:32
Priaulx Rainier (1903-1986)	Quartet for Strings (1939)

Franz Schubert (1797-1828)	String Quartet in G major D 887

With the new Schubert album "Lebensmuth", the Signum Quartett wants to pay homage to the tremendous resilience of spirit which he displayed in his final years. Schubert writes with the greatest and most subtle personal profundity, and of the traumas of war with shattering militaristic fanfares and the abysses which ensue. Yet there is not merely a bittersweet recollection of an innocent, carefree past, there is also a blazing triumph over adversity and an ineluctable forward momentum.

Priaulx Rainier is without a doubt one of the most important female composers of the 20th century. She was born in 1903 in South Africa and studied the violin at the RAM in London, later composition with Nadia Boulanger in Paris. In 1943 Priaulx Rainier was appointed professor of composition at the Royal Academy of Music. The Signum Quartett have recorded her Quartet for Strings for our new ECM album "glimpses".

To mark the release of our album “glimpses” for ECM, we present two works by South African composers Mokale Koapeng and Rob Fokkens. These are works of profound depth and great originality. In mood, they range from ethereal, spectral and haunting to dark and brooding, from a still, hushed sighing to tu-multuous outbursts of ecstasy.

Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827)

String Quartet Nr.14 in c-sharp minor Op. 131

The year 2024 marked thirty years since the fall of apartheid in South Africa. The Signum Quartet has celebrated this "glorious human achievement" (Mandela) and the conflicts contained therein by inviting some of South Africa's most original and powerful voices to reflect on their own experiences and journeys since 1994, weaving a rich musical tapestry as diverse as the country itself.

*The time for the healing of the wounds has come.
The moment to bridge the chasms that divide us has come.
The time to build is upon us.
Nelson Mandela, Presidential inauguration, 10 May 1994*

To frame these commissions, the quartet has chosen works symbolising hope and transformation. Both the lark and spring symbolise optimism and the dawn of the new, as so wonderfully expressed in these works by Haydn and Mozart. And few compositions express a deep sense of spiritual humanism and triumph over adversity as Beethoven's monumental late quartets.
