

Christmas Programmes

All programmes are moderated.
10-11 brass players, 1 percussion

Let it swing

Fred Coots (1897-1985), Haven Gillespie (1888-1975)

Santa Claus is coming to town

various trad., Rolf Zuckowski (*1947)

Süßer die Glocken nie swingen (Arr. Ingo Luis)

Robert Wells (1922-1998), Mel Tormé (1925-1999)

The Christmas Song (Arr. Stephan Stadtfeld)

Chris Rea (1951-2025)

Driving home for Christmas

Stephan Stadtfeld (*1984)

Dance of Joy and Sorrow - Spielereien über ein Thema von G.F. Händel

Traditional

Leise rieselt der Schnee (Arr. Peter Dörpinghaus)

Traditional

A sing-along medley (Arr. Ingo Luis)

Walter Rollins (1906-1973), Steve Nelson (1907-1981)

Frosty the Snowman (Arr. Peter Dörpinghaus)

Meredith Wilson (1902-1984)

It's beginning to look like Christmas

Various

Snow Suite (Arr. Stephan Stadtfeld)

1. Let it Snow
2. White Christmas
3. Sleigh Ride

Christmas Programmes

This Christmas Programme is more than just music - it is a festive journey full of groove, sparkle and unforgettable moments. Experience an extraordinary Christmas concert with Salaputia Brass, the ensemble that knows how to reinterpret festive magic in a jazzy and humorous way.

You can look forward to jazzy classics such as 'Driving Home for Christmas', 'It's Beginning to Look Like Christmas' and 'Santa Claus is Coming to Town'. With 'Let it Snow', 'White Christmas', 'Sleigh Ride' and 'Frosty the Snowman', Salaputia Brass creates a wintry atmosphere and makes the snowflakes dance musically.

The traditional sounds are not neglected either: with 'Lasst uns froh und munter sein', 'Süßer die Glocken nie klingen' and 'In der Weihnachtsbäckerei', the musicians get right to the heart of the Christmas season and give these songs their very own sound. You can especially look forward to the arrangement of 'Es wird scho glei dumpa', which surprises with a modern touch and creative harmonies.

This Christmas concert combines tradition, humour and jazz in a unique blend and is a feast for the senses. Let yourself be carried away by Salaputia Brass and its incomparable energy; and experience a Christmas season full of joy, surprises and swinging brass sound.

(Duration including moderation and break approx. 80 minutes)

Concert for children

Combine the evening programme with the children's programme and immerse yourself in a winter fairy tale full of music and magic with Salaputia Brass:

Mysterious, magical Christmas spell

The atmospheric winter fairy tale full of music and magic for young and old

This Christmas concert programme lets young and old feel the anticipation of the festive season, inspired by a magical story about siblings Marla and Nick, who uncover the secret of Christmas magic with the Christmas elf Klara Klingeling. While Marla and Nick actually wanted to make Christmas preparations with their parents, they set off on an exciting adventure with the mysterious babysitter Klara Klingeling. Together they travel through snow-covered forests, smell the scent of Christmas, make poinsettias, snack on gingerbread and collect wonderful sounds and moments.

This atmospheric story accompanies you through a musical experience with classics such as 'White Christmas', 'Let It Snow', 'Frosty the Snowman', 'Merry Christmas Everywhere' and much more. Let yourself be enchanted by festive music, imaginative scenes and a Christmas concert that will make children's hearts beat faster and adults immerse themselves in the most beautiful memories.

(duration approx. 50-60 min)