Georg Friedrich Händel (1685-1759)	Music for the Royal Fireworks in D Major HWV 351
Stephan Stadtfeld (*1984)	Joy and Sorrow (Games on a theme by G. F. Händel)

The true story of the Music for the Royale Fireworks: Salaputia Brass informs us with humor, charm and musical finesse about the chaotic history of the renown work: about Handel's invitation to London, the peace ceremony, the traffic chaos, the burning stage setting and the festive evening atmosphere in Green Park. We will listen to stories, performances and surprises in the first half and the whole magic work in the second: rousing, varied and full of musical highlights.
Duration: 2 hours with moderation
